

to the right and roughly parallels the ground surface. Core recovered from EB2-A exhibited moderate weathering in the upper meter and became hard and fresh with depth.

Groundwater

Groundwater elevations at Bent One are near normal water elevation of the creek (470m) while Groundwater at End Bent Two is slightly elevated and riding at the base of the weathered rock near elevation 474 meters.

Respectfully Submitted,

PQ Lockamy, LG
Project Geologist