

Groundwater

As in the first segment described in this project, even in the deeper borings, groundwater was detected infrequently except near streams. It did not occur at or above planned grade in this segment.

CLOSING STATEMENT

If any significant changes are made in the design or location of the proposed roadway, the subsurface information and interpretations will have to be reviewed and modified as necessary.

Respectfully Submitted,

R.Q. Callaway
Project Geologist