A RESOLUTION FOR ANDREW HOYLE BRIDGE

WHEREAS, Andrew Hoyle was born and raised in McDowell County and resided there with his family; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Hoyle was community-minded and well known for his generosity and kindness to others; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Hoyle worked in the highway construction industry and served with pride and distinction; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Hoyle lost his life on December 7, 1991, as a result of injuries sustained from a bridge construction accident November 19, 1991, on U.S. 74 in Rutherford County; and

WHEREAS, the McDowell and Rutherford County Board of Commissioners and the citizens of that area feel that it is important to keep alive the memory of this community-minded and generous individual,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED AS FOLLOWS:

That the bridge on Coxe Road (Secondary Road 1005) over the U.S. 74 Bypass currently under construction in Rutherford County, is hereby dedicated in honor of Andrew Hoyle.

That the N.C. Department of Transportation erect appropriate signs for such dedication.

Adopted this sixth day of March 1992.
